

Stakeholder Engagement

Dialogue and Cooperation with Stakeholders

The Daigas Group focuses on active engagement with stakeholders through dialogue to recognize various possible issues involved in its business activities and to work toward mutually acceptable solutions to such issues, based on the Daigas Group Charter of Business Conduct and Daigas Group Code of Conduct. For example, the Group has been promoting dialogue with the Kansai Consumers' Association Liaison Commission, the Osaka Voluntary Action Center, and the Osaka Gas Labor Union. Furthermore, the Group shares information and cooperates as a member of the Global Compact Network Japan and actively takes part and makes recommendations in the formulation of various policy measures by the government and municipalities. One of the results of such engagement is that five business associations formed by partner companies undertaking gas-related services established a Code of Ethics in response to the Group's policy. In addition, we are actively pursuing collaborative projects with companies, universities, NPOs and other organizations.

System for reflecting the opinions of stakeholders

The Daigas Group considers it a matter of course to listen and respond sincerely to questions/requests regarding our products and services, but we also hear a variety of questions, concerns and comments from numerous stakeholders in the course of conducting our business activities. We believe these opinions to be extremely important to enhancing the quality of the Group's management.

Under these circumstances, we have built the “C-VOICE” database, whereby these customer voices are shared by top-management officials and rank-and-file employees, and are put to good use in improving our business operations and enhancing our service quality. In particular, with regard to complaints, we try to share not only the factual process and the status of our response to customers but also measures to prevent recurrence and improve our systems.

■ Overview of C-VOICE

Mechanism for receiving stakeholder grievances

The Daigas Group responds to the opinions and requests in accordance with the Group's Code of Business Conduct which incorporated international standards such as the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the United Nations Global Compact, while observing domestic laws such as the Act on the Promotion of Global Warming Countermeasures and the Whistleblower Protection Act.

To deal with voices on the environment, Osaka Gas operates a company-wide Environmental Management System (EMS) according to the ISO 14001. As for the voices of local people who are concerned about the possible effects on local communities of our operations, we set up contact desks including “Customer Centers.” To address issues associated with human rights and labor practices, we set up “Compliance Desks” at Osaka Gas's headquarters, major affiliated companies and outside law firms representing Osaka Gas, to receive reports and offer consultation regarding the observance of laws and in-house rules. Furthermore, we have also established a “Human Rights Desk” in the Human Resources Department as a contact point for consultations about the human rights of employees, as well as “Harassment Desk” within respective organizations and affiliates as contact points for consultations about harassment from employees. Other systems established for the benefit of employees include the conducting of surveys designed to measure their work-related awareness, periodically holding meetings for the management to hold talks with labor union members, as well as meetings for employees and their superiors.

As for consultations, grievance, etc. received by the contact desks in FY2025.3, measures to remedy the situation and prevent recurrence were appropriately taken as necessary.
